

Pleasant Grove City recently won a Utah State Supreme Court ruling upholding the city's right to assess a Transportation Utility Fee. The City charged this fee on its utility bill for a couple years until it was challenged in court. After winning the challenge, the intent of the City is to re-implement the fee. This fee is earmarked for city road maintenance only intended to fix roads in Pleasant Grove City. Before re-implementation the City Council opted to decrease the fee by 20%. The original fee and discounted fee are listed below:

Original Charge

Residential- $8.45

Business Tier 1- $41.27

Business Tier 2- $236.05

*Business Tier 2 includes convenience stores, business with a drive-thru, and businesses with high employee count on-site

Current Charge (20% less than original)

Residential- $6.76

Business Tier 1- $33.02

Business Tier 2- $188.84
