

Grow Together Lecture Series

September 21, 2022

On Wednesday, September 21st, at 7:00 PM at the notable Grove Theater (20 South Main Street, Pleasant Grove), the Grow Together lecture series kicks off with Dr. Jay DeSart, chair of Utah Valley University's Department of History and Political Science. He is recently known for his study, "Utahans earn 'D' grade for civics knowledge", that was picked up and reported on by KSL.

Dr. DeSart will present on the importance of civic knowledge, political rhetoric, where Utah stacks up, expound upon what he has found as well share what we can do to raise our grade. The presentation will be 30–40-minutes followed by 20-minutes for questions and answers.

Recommended Reading: As part of this Grow Together Lecture Series, here is the recommended reading we encourage you to study in advance and come with questions for the Q&A portion of the presentation. The recommended reading is Dr. DeSart's report he wrote on the statewide survey: <https://www.uvu.edu/ccs/docs/civic-knowledge-survey-summary.pdf> or scan the QR code below:

See you there!
